

Phone call from Sherlene:

I'm in finals and I am going bonkers. I have mailed in two manuscripts to magazines and I have two requests from magazines asking for manuscripts. One of them is a lead from Barry about a law case from his law firm. It's a huge gold standard case about a gold mine in Utah. I used Daniel's art work in it.

Dan is really involved working late nights on the F.A.R.M.S. project on the Dead Sea Scrolls. It's a horrendous task and it's all volunteer so he has to keep up his regular work in addition. He's really enjoying it.

Daniel has found a beautiful young woman he is spending all his time with. He's flipped to put things mildly.

Dan has a job working for the family living department typing research on dating.

We got a letter from Laura and they have huge roaches and she doesn't eat anything but rice and Coke. It's the only thing she dares drink. She has a native companion from the Dominican Republic. She just loves it!! The people are so loving. The children follow them down the street like the Pied Piper. When they go to teach someone all the neighbors come in and listen. They don't have to tract because they have so many people to teach. The problem is getting them out to church and keeping them committed. They don't know they are poor. They have every thing they need to be happy. She doesn't feel sorry for them. She loves things to have things to give the children. If anyone wants to send things, send little things she can give out to the children.

Love,

Sherlene and Dan
